American Bible Union—Concerning Dr. Maclay's Pamphlet.

AMERICAN BIBLE UNION ROOMS, No. 350 Broome st., New York, July 18, 1856.

To the Editor of the New-York Daily Times:

SIR: We perceive by your issue of the 16th instant, that you quote statements from a production, purporting to be written by Rev. A. MACLAY, D. D., giving the reasons for resigning the Presidency of the American Bible Union. We have been informed from other sources, that such a document was in existence, and have seen what professes to be a copy, printed in a newspaper, and we have addressed the most respectful letters to Dr. MACLAY and other persons, soliciting a copy for the use of the Union. As yet, however, we have been unsuccessful, and can but conclude that there are good reasons why it should be circulated so secretly, and withheld so carefully from the Board of the Society, whose principles, plans and officers it attacks.

When Dr. MACLAY sent in his resignation, it was unaccompanied by any reason whatever. Nor has he at any time since he became President uttered a word before the Board expressive of his dissatisfaction with it. He has never submitted a suggestion to the Board personally or in writing for any change in its operations, as he was in duty bound to do if he thought a change necessary, although he was importuned privately to do so. In a Committee appointed by the Board, in January last, at Dr. MACLAY'S suggestion, "to inquire into the present condition and practical workings of our enterprise," of which Committee Dr. MACLAY was a member, he stated some of his grievances. But because the Committee did not adopt his suggestions, he threatened to resign as President, and to publish his reasons to the world, which he said "would ruin the Union," and actually refused to attend any more meetings of the Committee or the Board, and did so resign long before the Committee reported.

We have good reason to believe that Dr. MACLAY is not the real author of this pamphlet, but that it was written by a gentleman who has recently been dismissed from the service of the Bible Union for the very best of reasons, and who we understand has another publication against the Union, in the press. We owe it to the public, in this connection, to say, that we have abundant evidence for disproving every material allegation which the published document contains, in the form it has reached us. In due time, the Board and officers of the Union will ask a hearing. They have nothing to suppress, they have no information to withhold from the public eye, and above all, they feel conscious they have nothing to fear from a thorough investigation of their doings. Measures have already been taken not only to invite but to demand such an investigation.

The document signed by Dr. MACLAY attacks all the procedure of the Bible Union under the administration of his immortal predecessor, Dr. CONE, as well as under his own. And as the Board has in no case deviated from the policy established by Dr. CONE, a policy which the Union itself has unanimously approved from year to year, we shall await the final decision of the same body with the utmost confidence.

At the same time, we now invoke the scrutiny of all who are interested in the cause of truth, and the welfare of the Bible Union. We therefore invite all such persons to call at the rooms of the Society, No. 350 Broome-street, and examine our affairs personally, and we promise them every facility we possess for such an examination. Especially do we request the representatives of the secular press to take advantage of this invitation. You, gentlemen, have always acted most honorably towards the Bible Union, and we believe that you still desire to treat it in the same manner. For this reason we solicit you personally to make yourselves acquainted with our plans and modes of procedure, at your leisure, with the liberty of stating frankly your findings to the public.

Respectfully yours,

THOMAS ARMITAGE, President.

ANOTHER FATAL AFFRAY IN BALTIMORE.—Yesterday afternoon a difficulty occurred between two men named JOHN DUNN and JOHN B. ELY, at the corner of East and Bason streets, which terminated fatally to one of the parties. It appears that at this point, and there having been some previous misunderstanding between them, DUNN challenged ELY to fight, which was refused. DUNN then struck ELY, when they closed and fell. They were shortly after parted, when it was discovered that DUNN had been stabbed in two places in the lower part of the stomach, one of the wounds being in the region of the liver, which was pronounced dangerous. ELY was then arrested, and taken to the Middle District Police station-house, and delivered himself up to High Constable HUGHES. He was then taken before Justice [illegible], who released him in $2,000 bail to appear at the examination. We have since heard that DUNN died at 9 o'clock this morning.—Baltimore Sun, 19th.

INTERESTING FROM WASHINGTON.

The Illinois Contested Seat and Mr. King—The Honduras Treaty Story—No Federal Interference Against the Vigilance Committee—Fremont in Pennsylvania.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Daily Times.

WASHINGTON, Sunday, July 20.

The vote of Mr. KING of New-York against the resolution admitting Mr. ARCHER to the contested Illinois seat on Friday, was cast by agreement with our friends, in order to enable him to move a reconsideration.

The State Department has no dispatches confirming the story of a treaty between Great Britain and Honduras, ceding Ruatan to the latter.

The Secretary of State has addressed a letter to the Governor of California, informing him that the Federal Government cannot interfere against the Vigilance Committee until requested by the Legislature of California, or until that body shall be unable to act in consequence of the insurrection. This is understood to be in accordance with an opinion given by the Attorney-General. The Administration, however, sympathizes with the Governor against the Vigilance Committee.

The Buchanan men here are much alarmed at the failure of all enthusiasm for their candidate. Democratic accounts from Pennsylvania say that FREMONT is running with immense success. E.

The Provisions of the Pacific Railroad Bill—The Treasury Department Investigation.

WASHINGTON, Saturday, July 19.

The special Pacific Railroad Committee have agreed upon a bill, eleven members concurring, and Gen. BENTON, the Chairman, will report it on Monday, if he gets the floor. Three roads are provided for—one to be built north of the forty-fourth degree of north latitude, by the Northern Atlantic and Pacific Railroad Company, of which ALEXANDER RAMSAY is President; one between the thirty-eighth and forty-fourth parallels, to be constructed by an association of all the roads now chartered and running westward through Iowa and Missouri, the junction to be formed near Fort Kearney, and the single trunk to run to the navigable waters of the Pacific in California; and the Southern road is awarded to the Southern Atlantic and Pacific Railroad, of which T. BUTLER KING is President—a new company, associated with the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad Company, of California, the Texas Western Railroad Company, and the Vicksburg and Shreveport Company.

This line runs from the Mississippi, at some point south of the thirty-eighth degree, and runs to San Francisco, with a branch to San Diego, and with a grant of forty sections of land to the mile west of Texas to the California line, and then ten sections per mile to San Francisco. No grant is made for that portion of the road east of the western boundary of Texas. The Northern road receives forty sections from point to point, seventeen intervening. The middle road receives thirty sections until it reaches California, then ten sections to its western terminus. The provisions for mail pay are liberal. Telegraph lines are provided for on each road. The report of the committee will not be long, but clear and satisfactory. The bill will be put through without delay.

Capt. BOWMAN, chief of the Bureau of Construction of the TREASURY Department, has been three days before the Investigating Committee, and thus far they have been unable to implicate any one.

Quite a number of the Regents of the Smithsonian Institution have called on Mr. EDWARDS, to dissuade him from offering the resolution inquiring into the workings of that institution. He is, however, determined to offer it on Monday.

The contested election case from Nebraska was made the special order for Monday.

During the Herbert trial this morning, Mr. BROOKS came into Court and paid his fine of three hundred dollars and eighty-five dollars costs.

It is said that EDWARD C. STILES, of Pennsylvania, has been appointed Consul to Vienna.

The reports of the majority and minority of the Kansas Commission make nearly twelve hundred octavo pages.

The design is to call up the Kansas contested election case next week.

BLOODY FIGHT BETWEEN THE CAMANCHES AND THE SACS AND FOXES.

St. Louis, Saturday, July 19.

Intelligence from the Plains has been received here, stating that a sanguinary battle had occurred at the crossing of the Arkansas River on the Santa Fé road, between the confederate Sacs and Foxes and the Camanche Indians, resulting in the complete rout of the latter with the loss of twenty-one killed. The Sacs and Foxes had two killed. It is noted as a curious coincidence that at the same time two years ago a hostile meeting occurred at the same place, between the same parties, with precisely the same results.

THE KANSAS QUESTION.

Correspondence between Gov. Winston, of Alabama, and Gov. Gardner, of Massachusetts.

The Legislature of Massachusetts, at its last session, passed a series of resolutions on the subject of Kansas affairs, which were transmitted to the Governors of the several States. The following correspondence, in consequence, has passed between the Governor of Alabama and Massachusetts:

Gov. Winston to Gov. Gardner.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, MONTGOMERY, Ala., June 19, 1856.

SIR: Believing the resolves you have forwarded to this Department, in relation to the Territory of Kansas, to be in conflict with the truth of history, unconstitutional and treasonable in design, I return them to you, with a request that the future proceedings of the Legislature of Massachusetts on Federal affairs and the subject of slavery, be no more forwarded to this Department.

The obligations of the Constitution, and the laws of the United States passed in conformity thereto, being disregarded and nullified by Massachusetts, we desire no further intercourse with your State; and wish to be free in future from insult from a State whose citizens do not recognize accountability for insult and libelous imputations upon the character of Southern States and the citizens thereof.

Your obedient servant,

JOHN A. W. WINSTON.

His Excellency HENRY J. GARDNER, Governor of Massachusetts.

Gov. Gardner to Gov. Winston.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, COUNCIL CHAMBER, BOSTON, July 5, 1856.

SIR: I have received your letter under date of June 19, returning a copy of the Resolves of the Legislature of Massachusetts in relation to the Territory of Kansas, which I committed to you in accordance with the request of that body.

While I regret to say one word that may add to the irritation existing between the North and the South, it becomes my imperative duty, briefly but plainly, on behalf of Massachusetts, to repudiate the insult you attempt to cast upon her, and to vindicate the propriety of her conduct.

You say: "Believing the resolves you have forwarded to this Department, in relation to the Territory of Kansas, to be in conflict with the truth of History, unconstitutional and treasonable in design, I return them to you."

Had your Excellency attempted to particularize wherein these resolves were "in conflict with the truth of History," and had contented yourself with the courtesy due, I should more generally, if not of their regarding your errors could have been at once purged of this.

These resolves are temperately and calmly written, confessing only to a few of the more salient points in the long catalogue of injustice and outrages that mark the record of the past few years in Kansas, declaring that these deplorable occurrences are the result of the efforts made by the Slavery propagandists, for the purpose of forcing the system of servitude over that Territory, against the will of a majority of its actual inhabitants, and the wishes of the Union—that the sufferings of those settlers have touched the hearts of our citizens, and that we will use every just and constitutional effort to aid them in maintaining their rights, and in securing to each of the United States, in reference to these transactions, has exhibited a servility to a sectional interest, and an indifference to the fundamental principles of justice and freedom, which merits the condemnation of the American people. This last declaration has since been so fully indorsed as to render it needless for further argument to establish its truth.

Your Excellency may rest assured, notwithstanding your denial, the silent secrecy of every electoral act have spoken of to known to and recognized by every reader of loose resolves whether he lives North or South. The facts of history is too stern and immovable to warp itself to suit your Excellency's wishes. These unofficial occurrences are written, as with a pen of fire, on the breasts of the free. For what would you go to war? Not with until Massachusetts shall be recreant to every feeling due to her self-respect, and unless she surrender her right to speak and act freely on the subject of slavery, and those who claim to do them, and to them who will speak hardihood dare deny or defend them. If you mean that the whole world is to be silent when Massachusetts speaks, then I agree with you. They do not give the lie to her who worst of these inhuman outrages. They make no reference to the riding of the mails, of the organized irruption to the citizens of another State to control the elections, of arrests without judicial authority, of the mockery of legislation and inhuman laws, of the destruction of printing presses, of theft, of arson, and, last, that great and final crime, beyond which human depravity has no power to go, cold-blooded and deliberate murder.

Should your Excellency invoke the whole tenor of history, it must bring to your view the violation of hundreds of wives, to minors and children, and your ear the agonized cry of the orphan, and all for the crime that their husbands and fathers opposed, by their vote or voice, the introduction of human servitude into a region that your father and my father dedicated a third of a century ago, by a solemn national compact, to freedom forever.

But your Excellency asserts that these resolves are "unconstitutional and treasonable in design." The assertion that it is "unconstitutional" for a sovereign member of this confederacy to express through her legislature her sentiments upon one of the most momentous questions of the age is upon any question, needs no refutation. It may be that your Excellency wishes that thus the free expression of our opinions should be transcended by a constitutional revolution, but fortunately it is not probable that your Excellency will ever witness such a retrograde step in civilization and government as will be necessary to incorporate such a provision into the Constitution of the United States.

By a strange perversion of terms as applied to the act of a sovereign State, your Excellency further alleges that the resolves are "treasonable." Permit me to suggest that if the more recital in a dignified and calm way of a few of the principal outrages in Kansas be "treason," it may interest some of your constituents to know how partial your estimate of these blackened outrages may be characterized in your Excellency's catalogue of crimes.

Your Excellency is pleased further to say, "I return them [the resolves] to you, with a request that the future resolutions of the Legislature of Massachusetts on Federal Affairs and the subject of slavery, be no more forwarded to this Department." In this request your Excellency cannot be gratified. While I occupy the executive chair of Massachusetts the resolves of her Legislature on any and every subject will be transmitted to your "Department" whenever that Legislature requests it.

It is a mournful admission, however, that you desire to enlist the votes of freemen on "the subject of Slavery." You confess by this very declaration you would do so, had you the power, but fortunately your inability is not commensurate with your wishes. We readily acknowledge that we have neither the power nor the purpose to interfere with Slavery where in the confederated States under local laws it exists, but we are determined to use every honorable and constitutional effort to prevent its extension over territory now free, and to its blighting presence.

We appeal to a moral, political and moral sense. And we have full and abiding faith that at no very distant day it will be peaceably eradicated from every Christian community—all indications point unerringly to this result. Slavery has already dispossessed the [illegible] of the moral sentiment of every civilized country of the Old World. The mighty influences of literature in every tongue are sapping its foundations, the nobler and more generous impulses of our common humanity abhor it. Right, justice, equity, are all at antagonism with it. It paralyzes the arm of industry where it exists. It corrupts the morals of those among whom it has its habitation. In the end it impoverishes the community that permits its continuance. It has gradually been abolished in vast regions wherever and as fast as its baleful influences have been brought to the test of a true statesmanship—and above all, every one who recognizes a Divine and benignant Providence in each transaction of life, from morning evil ever educing real good, knows that no evil, the end omnipotent Being will in His own [illegible] time and manner [illegible] pernicious influences, all the prayers of the good men are answered and everywhere shall the enslaved go free.

With these views of the institution of Slavery, which are common to all her people, Massachusetts does not and that she is deservedly open to reproach and insult from the Chief Magistrate of a Slave State, for expressing her unalterable determination, based with her constituted powers or consent, to shall never be permitted to [illegible] this free and intelligent labor of her sons upon the soil of those territories which [illegible] Abortion of her Birthright and inheritance.

Your Excellency next asserts: "The obligations of the Constitution, and the laws of the United States passed in conformity thereto, being disregarded and nullified by Massachusetts, we desire no further intercourse with your State."
